

Approved Volunteer Position

Under the IDRN AVP Program

Submitted: / /
Processed by:
AVP Ref #: AVP-0000

PROGRAM CONTEXT

The International Disaster Response Network (IDRN) is a global grassroots registry. IDRN members (both individuals and groups) are not responsible for another member’s actions – especially financially or legally.

IDRN Global is a singular member of this IDRN network with the unique focus of assisting the larger network in cohesion and basic networking interactions and functions. Volunteers are central to the grassroots nature of the network. This AVP Program and this specifically defined position are managed by IDRN Global on the behalf of the larger network. Each person working within this defined AVP Program is responsible for their own actions and financial relationships and behavior. This document only shows alignment between the larger network and the volunteer work described for a specific individual at this point in time.

POSITION TITLE & DESCRIPTION SUMMARY

AVP Description Summary - A complete position description of this summary is further inside this document.

IDRN Volunteer Name: Member since:

VOLUNTEER DEFINITION

Volunteer, the word, is defined as a person who voluntarily undertakes or expresses a willingness to undertake a service. Most people use financial compensation as a central in the understanding of this term. The following section of this document clarifies the financial intentions for this position. Even for those fully compensated financially for doing this job established through local structures, the position and work is voluntarily pursued. The only recourse IDRN Global will have if this voluntary relationship is no longer acceptable is to publicly report that this position is no longer approved by IDRN Global on behalf of the larger IDRN.

FINANCIAL INTENTIONS

The AVP Volunteer intends to establish the following approach regarding financial matters related to this defined work. Please note that IDRN Global has no obligation or expectation to provide any financial funding in support of this work.

Please select the appropriate option.

- O EXPENSES ONLY: Expenses related to this specific AVP work will be reimbursed through local and appropriate infrastructure. Compensation for time and work will typically not be requested, even though in rare occasions when appropriate and documented with the AVP Program administrators.

- O EXPENSES + COMPENSATION: Expenses related to this specific AVP work will be reimbursed through local and appropriate infrastructure. Compensation for time and work will also be requested through appropriate local infrastructure abiding by local established law and appropriate for the local culture and economy.

- O NO REIMBURSEMENT, NO COMPENSATION: This IDRN volunteer is only looking for formal recognition and clarity regarding their work with this specific position. No on-going financial expectations or arrangements are intended to support this volunteer work. In rare occasions when some type of financial interaction is appropriate for this work and this position, the volunteer can work through appropriate channels to address the financial needs - typically some type of expense reimbursement or special project hires. In each case where financial transactions occur related to this position, it is to be documented with the AVP Program administrators.

Please provide a simple description of the probable methods of addressing financial matters in regard to this defined position.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The job imagined and intended is:

SPECIAL NOTES

This is optional and intended to document any additional clarification to support alignment.

ALIGNED & APPROVED

The following individuals acknowledge alignment and agreement to the best of their knowledge, and full support is offered to the volunteer in pursuing this defined IDRN volunteer position.

IDRN Global, Board Member
Date:
Printed name:

IDRN Global, Executive Director
Date:
Printed name:

IDRN Volunteer
Date:
Printed name: